HYMN: On Jordan's Bank The Baptist's Cry (Charles Coffin 1676-1749)
(Translated by John Chandler 1806-1876)

On Jordan's bank the Baptist's cry announces that the Lord is nigh.
Awake and harken, for he brings glad tidings of the King of kings!

Then cleansed be every life from sin:
make straight the way for God within,
and let us all our hearts prepare for Christ to come and enter there.

We hail you as our Saviour, Lord,
our refuge and our great reward.
Without your grace we waste away like flowers that wither and decay.

Stretch forth your hand, our health restore,
and make us rise to fall no more.
O let your face upon us shine and fill the world with love divine.

All praise to you, eternal Son, whose advent has our freedom won,
whom with the Father we adore,
and Holy Spirit, evermore.

Collect for 2nd Sunday of Advent:

O Lord, raise up, we pray, your power
and come among us,
and with great might succour us;
that whereas, through our sins and wickedness
we are grievously hindered in running the race that is set before us, your bountiful grace and mercy may speedily help and deliver us;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
to whom with you and the Holy Spirit,
be honour and glory, now and for ever.

Psalm: Psalm 85: 1-2, 8-end

- 1 Lord, you were gracious to your land; ♦ you restored the fortunes of Jacob.
- 2 You forgave the offence of your people ♦ and covered all their sins.

News and Prayer Update for 6th December

- <sup>8</sup> I will listen to what the Lord God will say, ♦ for he shall speak peace to his people and to the faithful, that they turn not again to folly.
- <sup>9</sup> Truly, his salvation is near to those who fear him, ♦ that his glory may dwell in our land.
- <sup>10</sup> Mercy and truth are met together, ♦ righteousness and peace have kissed each other;
- <sup>11</sup> Truth shall spring up from the earth ♦ and righteousness look down from heaven.
- <sup>12</sup> The Lord will indeed give all that is good, ♦ and our land will yield its increase.
- <sup>13</sup> Righteousness shall go before him ♦ and direct his steps in the way.

First reading: Isaiah 40: 1-11

- <sup>1</sup>Comfort, O comfort my people, says your God.
- <sup>2</sup>Speak tenderly to Jerusalem, and cry to her that she has served her term,
that her penalty is paid,
that she has received from the LORD's hand double for all her sins.
- <sup>3</sup>A voice cries out:
'In the wilderness prepare the way of the LORD,
make straight in the desert a highway for our God.
- <sup>4</sup>Every valley shall be lifted up,
and every mountain and hill be made low;
the uneven ground shall become level,
and the rough places a plain.
- <sup>5</sup>Then the glory of the LORD shall be revealed,
and all people shall see it together,
for the mouth of the LORD has spoken.'
- <sup>6</sup>A voice says, 'Cry out!'
And I said, 'What shall I cry?'
All people are grass,
their constancy is like the flower of the field.
- <sup>7</sup>The grass withers, the flower fades,
when the breath of the LORD blows upon it;
surely the people are grass.
- <sup>8</sup>The grass withers, the flower fades;
but the word of our God will stand for ever.
- <sup>9</sup>Get you up to a high mountain,
O Zion, herald of good tidings;
lift up your voice with strength,
O Jerusalem, herald of good tidings,

News and Prayer Update for 6th December

lift it up, do not fear;
say to the cities of Judah,
'Here is your God!'
<sup>10</sup> See, the Lord GOD comes with might,
and his arm rules for him;
his reward is with him,
and his recompense before him.
<sup>11</sup> He will feed his flock like a shepherd;
he will gather the lambs in his arms,
and carry them in his bosom,
and gently lead the mother sheep.

Gospel Reading: Mark 1: 1- 8

<sup>1</sup> The beginning of the good news of Jesus Christ, the Son of God.

'See, I am sending my messenger ahead of you, who will prepare your way;

<sup>3</sup> the voice of one crying out in the wilderness:

"Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight",

<sup>5</sup> And people from the whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem were going out to him, and were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins.

<sup>7</sup> He proclaimed, 'The one who is more powerful than I is coming after me; I am not worthy to stoop down and untie the thong of his sandals.

<sup>8</sup> I have baptized you with water; but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.'

REFLECTION ON THE READING

Advent means coming into place. We are waiting for Jesus, the Prince of Peace to come into place in our world again, as he did some 2,000 years ago. Both Isaiah and John the Baptist heralded that first coming of Christ.

In the prophet Isaiah's time his people and many future generations had a long wait of 700 years for the first coming of the Prince of Peace. John the Baptist however recognised that Jesus was already present among the people, the very people he urged to be prepared to receive him by being baptised and confessing their sins.

How prepared are we for the second coming of the Prince of Peace? Do we live according to our baptism vows?

News and Prayer Update for 6th December

- Do we reject the devil and rebellion against God?
- Do we renounce evil and corruption in our world or do we just turn a blind eye?
- Do we repent of wrong doing that separates us from God and our neighbours?
- Do we accept Christ the Prince of Peace, as our Saviour and submit to him?

As for waiting for the Prince of Peace, at present we've all had to work hard on our patience: waiting for jobs to be done, vaccines to be safe enough to administer, people to recover from Covid 19, being able to freely mix with loved ones and friends, being allowed to sing in choirs and churches ... and the list could go on. At present we are all having to become more tolerant in waiting for things to happen or to change. A tough call for a quick fix, instant gratification society. But, are we also prepared for what is happening now?

This run up to Christmas can be a stressful time for people made doubly so by living through a pandemic. There has been and still is fear, anxiety and grief on a massive scale.

We can't understate the horrors of dying with Covid 19, people not being able to be beside their sick relatives and friends, people not allowed to attend the funerals of loved ones, the escalation of domestic abuse, the crashing blow of losing one's job and not being able to pay for essentials, the acute loneliness for those living alone and an increase in depression as people are prevented from interacting with others. Also the fear of not receiving life-saving treatments for those with other serious medical conditions.

Time is a gift from God, so with all this extra time due to lockdown, as we wait for Christ's second coming, how can we be prepared? There is now more time to reflect on our lives and decide what is important and what is less important. Each day I see numerous family groups in my village going for walks or bike rides - on a scale rarely seen pre pandemic.

It has also been a good time to listen to God. To reflect on our blessings when there is so much darkness around us. A time to reflect on our relationship with friends and neighbours nationally and internationally and to show our love for them in a myriad of ways.

As we prepare for the new normal in our lives we need to listen well to God's plan for our lives. Just as families are now making more time for each other we need to do likewise but also make more time for God - time to work, rest, pray and play. Being grounded in prayer keeps us close to God and as St Anselm of Canterbury in the 11th century once said:

"Flee for a while from your tasks, hide yourself for a little space from the turmoil of your thoughts. Come, cast aside your burdensome cares, and put aside your laborious pursuits. For a little while give your time to God, and rest in him for a little while. Enter into the inner chamber of your mind, shut out all things save God and whatever may aid you in seeking God: and having barred the door of your chamber, seek him.'

Advent is about the certain hope that Christ, the Prince of Peace, is coming again

News and Prayer Update for 6th December

to dwell in us. In today's world there are numerous ways in which we can show our love for our neighbours in Christ and it is through this witness of our lives that the way, the truth and the life can break through the heartache and uncertainty around us and speak joy to our world once more.

HYMN: Come Thou Long Expected Jesus (Charles Wesley 1707-1788)

Come, thou long expected Jesus
Born to set thy people free
From our fears and sins release us
Let us find our rest in thee

Israel's strength and consolation
Hope of all the earth thou art
Dear desire of every nation
Joy of every longing heart

Born thy people to deliver Born a child and yet a king
Born to reign in us forever
Now thy gracious kingdom bring

By thine own eternal spirit
Rule in all our hearts alone
By thine own sufficient merit
Raise us to thy glorious throne

PRAYER in the coming week – 2nd week of Advent:

Advent candle prayers:

First Candle – The Candle of Hope

We speak of hope – because God keeps his promises to us.

We focus on the Patriarchs, Abraham, the Old Testament Ancestors of Jesus

God of Abraham and Sarah, and all the patriarchs of old,
you are our Father too.

Your love is revealed to us in Jesus Christ,
Son of God and Son of David.

Help us in preparing to celebrate his birth to make our hearts ready for your Holy Spirit to make his home among us.

We ask this through Jesus Christ,
the light who is coming into the world.

Amen.

Second Candle – The Candle of Peace

News and Prayer Update for 6th December

We work for peace – because Jesus is the ‘Prince of Peace’ and he calls his children to work for peace in his name.

We focus on the prophets who foretold the birth of Jesus

God our Father,

you spoke to the prophets of old
of a Saviour who would bring peace.

You helped them to spread the joyful message of his coming kingdom.

Help us, as we prepare to celebrate his birth, to share with those around us
the good news of your power and love.

We ask this through Jesus Christ,
the light who is coming into the world.

Amen.

Comfort and Joy activity for 2nd week of Advent (from Church of England website)

What brings joy today? Being able to give presents to others

Christians sometimes call Jesus ‘God’s gift to us’ – that’s why we give gifts to each other at Christmas. Make a list of the people your family will give gifts to this Christmas. Thank God for each person.

Who needs comfort today? Those worried about money

Christmas can be expensive. Some people are worried that they do not have enough money for gifts or food. Could your family help by giving a gift to your local foodbank?

Prayer for the Month:

Father in heaven,
our hearts desire the warmth of your love and our minds are searching for the light of your Word.

Increase our longing for Christ our Saviour and give us strength to grow in love, that the dawn of his coming may find us rejoicing in his presence and welcoming the light of his truth.

The Roman Missal

❖ Advent study group – Monday Evenings - Starts at 19.00 this week.

Living in Hope a York Course by Catherine Fox 'This course is a chance to have a think about what it means to live well, and to die well. We are people of history and people of hope. We look back to the Bible to see where we've come from, and we look forward in hope to what lies ahead'. Last week we thought about how to live well. It isn't too late to join if you would like to. Please let us know (Revd Patricia email: pmrobinson51@gmail.com or telephone 01565 830 595; Chris Stanisstreet: 01925 755559) if you would like to join us daytime or evening.

❖ A REAL Advent Calendar

To help us journey through Advent during our Covid 19 Restrictions St Philip and St James at Alderley Edge has created an Advent Calendar to take everyone on a Christian journey through Advent.

News and Prayer Update for 6th December

Simply click on the link below and then choose the date on the Advent Calendar. There you will find a "Thought for the Day" along with music and craft ideas.

<https://www.stphilipandstjames.co.uk/advent/>

❖ Join the Prayer Chain:

Our Reader, Chris Stanisstreet has organised a Prayer Chain which is done by email and telephone. The idea behind this, is that when a specific prayer request is made, it is passed on by group e-mail to the people on the list who then pray for the particular situation.

If you would like to receive prayer requests or would like to make a prayer request, please let Chris Stanisstreet know:

Tel: 01925 755559; Mob 07918 981 723; stanbess2003@yahoo.co.uk

❖ The Hideaway – Hope Centre in Partington

Partington is just a few miles away – about 15 minutes in the car. Yet the lives of many people there are very different than the lives of most of us here in High Legh and Little Bollington. Approximately 1/3 of the residents live below the poverty line and it is in the lowest 5% of deprived areas in the UK.

Churches Together in Lymm and District have supported The Hideaway – Hope Centre in Partington during the Covid 19 crisis. They are running a foodbank, providing hot meals daily, hosting a play-centre, giving family advice and counselling. An amazing beacon of hope in that deprived area.

They plan to open a shop selling surplus food and uniform at affordable prices but unfortunately one of the businesses that had offered money is not able to give and they are £3000 short and desperately need to begin this project by December. Can you support them? Any amount will help and if possible, within the next two weeks.

Please use the Lymm Baptist Church giving website:

lyymbaptistchurch.com/giving

Any money you give will go directly to the Hope Centre.

If you cannot use online giving but would like to support them please contact Rev'd Trish for help.

Thank you

We are all in need of hope in these difficult times. Please will you give a little hope to our neighbours.

❖ Offering and Fund Raising – Please continue to give if you can

❖ Knutsford Food Bank – St Mary's and St Paul's

During Advent and into the New Year please help us support the Knutsford Food Bank by bringing items for us to collect and take to The Welcome at the start of the New Year – a time when families and people in need can find themselves in difficulty.

Saturday 12th Dec – Psalm 145; Isaiah 49: 1-13; 1 Thess. 4: 13-end

News and Prayer Update for 6th December

Readings for Night Prayer (for Advent)

Short Bible Reading: Mark 13.35-end.

Keep awake – for you do not know when the master of the house will come, in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or at dawn, or else he may find you asleep when he comes suddenly. And what I say to you I say to all: Keep awake.

You may also like to continue using the readings in the Worship at Home Booklet.

Psalm: Psalm 143

- 1 Hear my prayer, O Lord, and in your faithfulness give ear to my supplications; ♦ answer me in your righteousness.
- 2 Enter not into judgement with your servant, ♦
for in your sight shall no one living be justified.
- 3 For the enemy has pursued me, crushing my life to the ground, ♦ making me sit in darkness like those long dead.
- 4 My spirit faints within me; ♦
my heart within me is desolate.
- 5 I remember the time past; I muse upon all your deeds; ♦
I consider the works of your hands.
- 6 I stretch out my hands to you; ♦ my soul gasps for you like a thirsty land.
- 7 O Lord, make haste to answer me; my spirit fails me; ♦ hide not your face from me lest I be like those who go down to the Pit.
- 8 Let me hear of your loving-kindness in the morning, for in you I put my trust; ♦ show me the way I should walk in, for I lift up my soul to you.
- 9 Deliver me, O Lord, from my enemies, ♦ for I flee to you for refuge.
- 10 Teach me to do what pleases you, for you are my God; ♦ let your kindly spirit lead me on a level path.
- 11 Revive me, O Lord, for your name's sake; ♦ for your righteousness' sake, bring me out of trouble.
- 12 In your faithfulness, slay my enemies, and destroy all the adversaries of my soul, ♦ for truly I am your servant.

Collect:

Sir up your power, O God,
and come among us.
Heal our wounds,
calm our fears
and give us peace;
through Jesus our Redeemer.

Blessing:

Restore us again, O God of hosts;
show us the light of your countenance and we shall be saved.
Bless and keep us, this night and always.
