HYMN: On Jordan's Bank the Baptist's Cry (Charles Coffin 1676-1749 translated by John Chandler 1806-1876)

On Jordan's bank the Baptist's cry announces that the Lord is nigh.
Awake and harken, for he brings glad tidings of the King of kings!

Then cleansed be every life from sin:
make straight the way for God within,
and let us all our hearts prepare for Christ to come and enter there.

We hail you as our Saviour, Lord,
our refuge and our great reward.
Without your grace we waste away
like flowers that wither and decay.

Stretch forth your hand, our health restore,
and make us rise to fall no more.
O let your face upon us shine
and fill the world with love divine.

All praise to you, eternal Son,
whose advent has our freedom won,
whom with the Father we adore,
and Holy Spirit, evermore.

Collect for The Baptism of Christ:

Eternal Father,
who at the baptism of Jesus
revealed him to be your Son, anointing him with the Holy Spirit:
grant to us, who are born again by water and the Spirit, that we may be faithful to our calling as your adopted children;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord,
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Psalm: Psalm 29

- 1 Ascribe to the Lord, you powers of heaven, ♦
ascribe to the Lord glory and strength.
- 2 Ascribe to the Lord the honour due to his name; ♦
worship the Lord in the beauty of holiness.
- 3 The voice of the Lord is upon the waters; the God of glory thunders; ♦
the Lord is upon the mighty waters.

News and Prayer Update for 10th January

- 4 The voice of the Lord is mighty in operation; ♦
the voice of the Lord is a glorious voice.
- 5 The voice of the Lord breaks the cedar trees; ♦
the Lord breaks the cedars of Lebanon;
- 6 He makes Lebanon skip like a calf ♦
and Sirion like a young wild ox.
- 7 The voice of the Lord splits the flash of lightning; the voice of the Lord shakes
the wilderness; ♦
the Lord shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.
- 8 The voice of the Lord makes the oak trees writhe and strips the forests bare; ♦ in his temple all cry, 'Glory!'
- 9 The Lord sits enthroned above the water flood; ♦
the Lord sits enthroned as king for evermore.
- 10 The Lord shall give strength to his people; ♦
the Lord shall give his people the blessing of peace.

First reading: Genesis 1: 1 – 5

- <sup>1</sup> In the beginning when God created the heavens and the earth, <sup>2</sup> the earth was a formless void and darkness covered the face of the deep, while a wind from God swept over the face of the waters.
<sup>3</sup> Then God said, 'Let there be light'; and there was light.
<sup>4</sup> And God saw that the light was good; and God separated the light from the darkness.
<sup>5</sup> God called the light Day, and the darkness he called Night. And there was evening and there was morning, the first day.

Gospel Reading: Mark 1: 4 – 11

- <sup>4</sup> John the baptizer appeared in the wilderness, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins.
<sup>5</sup> And people from the whole Judean countryside and all the people of Jerusalem were going out to him, and were baptized by him in the river Jordan, confessing their sins.
<sup>6</sup> Now John was clothed with camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and he ate locusts and wild honey.
<sup>7</sup> He proclaimed, 'The one who is more powerful than I is coming after me; I am not worthy to stoop down and untie the thong of his sandals.
<sup>8</sup> I have baptized you with water; but he will baptize you with the Holy Spirit.'
<sup>9</sup> In those days Jesus came from Nazareth of Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan.
<sup>10</sup> And just as he was coming up out of the water, he saw the heavens torn apart and the Spirit descending like a dove on him.
<sup>11</sup> And a voice came from heaven, 'You are my Son, the Beloved; with you I am well pleased.'

REFLECTION ON THE READINGS from Christ Stanisstreet, Reader

“The Baptism of Jesus”

Imagine you're fast asleep, happily dreaming in your cosy bed, then suddenly your mother bursts into your bedroom shouting, sprinkling water over your face, telling you to wake up and get up, you'll be late.

John the Baptist in today's reading was like your mum. His wake-up call ministry burst in on a surprised Jewish world. Since the time of patriarchs and prophets they had been expecting a sign from God that the Messiah was coming but didn't expect to be told to get baptismally washed in the Jordan and repent of their sins.

Repentance means to turn around and go the right way. John was telling the Jews they needed to be ready to meet the person much greater than him. What John did with water the “coming one” would do with the Holy Spirit.

So, why did Jesus, the one without any sin, ask John to baptise him? It seems to be illogical however, on reflection there were several good reasons.

A moment of decision

For thirty years Jesus had remained in Nazareth, carried out daily chores and engaged in family life. The emergence of John the Baptist was a sign that it was time to make a decision, to leave the comfort of home and meet the challenge of his God given commission.

In all our lives there come times of decision or rejection. Maybe, whether or not to have children. Following a holiday in The Gambia, my husband and I saw first hand understaffed, poorly resourced schools, which eventually led to my decision to temporarily leave my comfortable home life and well paid job to become a VSO volunteer for 2 years in rural Namibia.

A moment of identification

Though Jesus was sinless his baptism was not for his own sake but rather to enable him to identify with others who had chosen to repent and follow God's ways.

There may have been times in your lives when you identified with a movement not for your sake but to support others. Through supporting those working for climate change at present, we may not see immediate advantages to our lives but hopefully future generations will benefit.

A moment of approval

Jesus made a momentous decision and no doubt looked for God's approval.

Jews believed in a series of Heavens with God sitting in the highest one in a light that no-one could approach. On rare occasions the Heavens opened and God spoke to people in a distant voice but spoke directly to Jesus: “This is my Son the beloved”. At baptism Jesus submitted his decision to God which was unmistakably approved. When the living God looks at us, at every baptised and believing Christian, he says to us what he said to Jesus on the day he was baptised: “You are my dear child; I am delighted with you.” He sees us not as we see ourselves but as we are in Christ.

A moment of empowerment

The God who called forth light from the primordial waters as we heard in our Genesis reading, is the same God who calls us to new birth in the waters of baptism. The Holy Spirit who swept over the primordial waters descended on Jesus in the waters of the Jordan and named him “beloved.” It descended on Jesus like a dove empowering him for his mission just as it empowered the disciples at Pentecost and empowers us today.

Doves are symbols of gentleness. Jesus went on to conquer but that conquest was one of love. In the waters of baptism, God names us “beloved” and then calls us to live out our new birth as his children, in the name of Christ and by the power of the Holy Spirit.

In these challenging times we are surrounded by generous humanitarian care for others. In recent history there has never been such a need for us to reach out with love, further than we have ever done, into our communities and world.

Like Jesus, we need to make the decision to act, identify ourselves as the body of Christ, know that we have God’s approval and the empowerment of his Holy Spirit within us. Amen

HYMN: Hail to the Lord’s Anointed (Godfrey Thring 1823 – 1903)

Hail to the Lord's anointed, great David's greater Son!
Hail in the time appointed, His reign on earth begun!
He comes to break oppression, to set the captive free,
To take away transgression, and rule in equity.

He comes in succor speedy to those who suffer wrong,
To help the poor and needy, and bid the weak be strong.
To give them songs for sighing, their darkness turn to light,
Whose souls, condemned and dying, are precious in His sight.

He shall come down like showers upon the fruitful earth,
Love, joy, and hope, like flowers, spring in His path to birth.
Before him on the mountains shall peace, the herald, go;
And righteousness in fountains from hill to valley flow.

Kings shall bow down before him, and gold and incense bring;
All nations shall adore him, his praise all peoples sing:
To him shall prayer unceasing and daily vows ascend;
His kingdom still increasing, a kingdom without end.

O'er every foe victorious, he on his throne shall rest;
From age to age more glorious, all-blessing and all-blest:
The tide of time shall never His covenant remove.
His Name shall stand forever, the changeless name of love.

Intercessions (coronavirus) from Church of England website – SET B

Let us pray to the Lord,
who is our refuge and stronghold.
For the health and well-being of our nation,
that all who are fearful and anxious may be at peace and free from worry:

Lord, hear us,

Lord, graciously hear us.

For the isolated and housebound,
that we may be alert to their needs,
and care for them in their vulnerability:

Lord, hear us,

Lord, graciously hear us.

For our homes and families,
our schools and young people,
and all in any kind of need or distress:

Lord, hear us,

Lord, graciously hear us.

For a blessing on our local community,
that our neighbourhoods may be places of trust and friendship,
where all are known and cared for:

Lord, hear us,

Lord, graciously hear us.

We commend ourselves, and all for whom we pray,
to the mercy and protection of God.

Merciful Father,

accept these prayers

Readings for Night Prayer (for Epiphany)

Short Reading:

The grace of God has appeared, bringing salvation to all. (Titus 2.11)

Psalm 16

- 1 Preserve me, O God, for in you have I taken refuge; ♦
I have said to the Lord, 'You are my lord, all my good depends on you.'
- 2 All my delight is upon the godly that are in the land, ♦ upon those who are noble in heart.
- 3 Though the idols are legion that many run after, ♦ their drink offerings of blood I will not offer, neither make mention of their names upon my lips.
- 4 The Lord himself is my portion and my cup; ♦
in your hands alone is my fortune.
- 5 My share has fallen in a fair land; ♦
indeed, I have a goodly heritage.
- 6 I will bless the Lord who has given me counsel, ♦ and in the night watches he instructs my heart.
- 7 I have set the Lord always before me; ♦
he is at my right hand; I shall not fall.
- 8 Wherefore my heart is glad and my spirit rejoices; ♦
my flesh also shall rest secure.
- 9 For you will not abandon my soul to Death, ♦
nor suffer your faithful one to see the Pit.
- 10 You will show me the path of life; in your presence is the fullness of joy ♦ and in your right hand are pleasures for evermore.

Collect:

King of kings and Lord of lords,
making the true light to shine:
lighten our darkness now and evermore that with our lips and in our lives
we may praise you;
for you are our God, now and for ever.

Blessing:

May the living waters of Christ cleanse us,
may the Spirit descend upon us,
and the blessing of God be with us
this night and always.
