HYMN: Take My Life and Let it Be

Frances Ridley Havergal (1836-1879)

Take my life, and let it be Consecrated, Lord, to Thee;
Take my moments and my days,
Let them flow in ceaseless praise.

Take my hands, and let them move
At the impulse of Thy love;
Take my feet and let them be
Swift and beautiful for Thee.

Take my voice, and let me sing
Always, only, for my King;
Take my lips, and let them be Filled with messages from Thee.

Take my silver and my gold;
Not a mite would I withhold;
Take my intellect, and use
Every power as Thou shalt choose.

Take my will, and make it Thine;
It shall be no longer mine.
Take my heart; it is Thine own;
It shall be Thy royal throne.

Take my love; my Lord, I pour
At Thy feet its treasure-store.
Take myself, and I will be Ever, only, all for Thee.

Collect for 4th Sunday of Advent:

God our redeemer,
who prepared the Blessed Virgin Mary
to be the mother of your Son:
grant that, as she looked for his coming as our saviour,
so we may be ready to greet him
when he comes again as our judge;
who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

Psalm: Psalm 89: 1-8

<sup>1</sup> My song shall be always of the loving-kindness of the Lord: ♦

News and Prayer Update for 20th December

- with my mouth will I proclaim your faithfulness throughout all generations.
- 2 I will declare that your love is established for ever; ♦ you have set your faithfulness as firm as the heavens.
- 3 For you said: 'I have made a covenant with my chosen one; ♦
I have sworn an oath to David my servant:
- 4 "Your seed will I establish for ever ♦ and build up your throne for all generations."
- 5 The heavens praise your wonders, O Lord, ♦ and your faithfulness in the assembly of the holy ones;
- 6 For who among the clouds can be compared to the Lord? ♦
Who is like the Lord among the host of heaven?
- 7 A God feared in the council of the holy ones, ♦ great and terrible above all those round about him.
- 8 Who is like you, Lord God of hosts? ♦
Mighty Lord, your faithfulness is all around you.

First reading: 2 Samuel 7: 1-11,16

- 1 Now when the king was settled in his house, and the LORD had given him rest from all his enemies around him,
- 2 the king said to the prophet Nathan, 'See now, I am living in a house of cedar, but the ark of God stays in a tent.'
- 3 Nathan said to the king, 'Go, do all that you have in mind; for the LORD is with you.'
- 4 But that same night the word of the LORD came to Nathan:
- 5 Go and tell my servant David: Thus says the LORD: Are you the one to build me a house to live in?
- 6 I have not lived in a house since the day I brought up the people of Israel from Egypt to this day, but I have been moving about in a tent and a tabernacle.
- 7 Wherever I have moved about among all the people of Israel, did I ever speak a word with any of the tribal leaders of Israel, whom I commanded to shepherd my people Israel, saying, 'Why have you not built me a house of cedar?'
- 8 Now therefore thus you shall say to my servant David: Thus says the LORD of hosts: I took you from the pasture, from following the sheep to be prince over my people Israel;
- 9 and I have been with you wherever you went, and have cut off all your enemies from before you; and I will make for you a great name, like the name of the great ones of the earth.
- 10 And I will appoint a place for my people Israel and will plant them, so that they may live in their own place, and be disturbed no more; and evildoers shall afflict them no more, as formerly,
- 11 from the time that I appointed judges over my people Israel; and I will give you rest from all your enemies. Moreover, the LORD declares to you that the LORD will make you a house.
- 16 Your house and your kingdom shall be made sure for ever before me; your throne shall be established for ever.

Gospel Reading: Luke 1: 26-38

News and Prayer Update for 20th December

<sup>26</sup> In the sixth month the angel Gabriel was sent by God to a town in Galilee called Nazareth, <sup>27</sup> to a virgin engaged to a man whose name was Joseph, of the house of David. The virgin's name was Mary.

<sup>28</sup> And he came to her and said, 'Greetings, favoured one! The Lord is with you.'

<sup>29</sup> But she was much perplexed by his words and pondered what sort of greeting this might be.

<sup>30</sup> The angel said to her, 'Do not be afraid, Mary, for you have found favour with God.'

<sup>31</sup> And now, you will conceive in your womb and bear a son, and you will name him Jesus.

<sup>32</sup> He will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High, and the Lord God will give to him the throne of his ancestor David.

<sup>33</sup> He will reign over the house of Jacob for ever, and of his kingdom there will be no end.'

<sup>34</sup> Mary said to the angel, 'How can this be, since I am a virgin?'

<sup>35</sup> The angel said to her, 'The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you; therefore the child to be born<sup>[d]</sup> will be holy; he will be called Son of God.'

<sup>36</sup> And now, your relative Elizabeth in her old age has also conceived a son; and this is the sixth month for her who was said to be barren.

<sup>38</sup> Then Mary said, 'Here am I, the servant of the Lord; let it be with me according to your word.' Then the angel departed from her.

REFLECTION ON THE READING

We have come to the final Sunday of Advent and both today's readings speak of God making covenants with human beings. The OT contains several covenant agreements between God and human beings, but they are all between God and a man. God had spoken to women sometimes – the mothers of Samuel and Samson for instance – but these were only conversations, not covenants. Covenants are a form of agreement and reflect the commitment between God and his people.

In our OT reading today God made a covenant with King David that David's line, his dynasty if you like would last for ever. Verse 16 – "Your house and your kingdom shall be made sure for ever before me; your throne shall be established for ever." This covenant is one of the milestones in OT revelation marking the successive stages in the unfolding of God's redemptive purpose.

In the NT reading we see the redemptive purpose of God unfolding further but for the first time the revelation comes to a woman. This is the beginning of the New covenant between God and humankind.

By the age of 12 a Jewish girl would be considered to have come of age.

News and Prayer Update for 20th December

At this point Mary would have been expected to keep the parts of the Torah, the Jewish law, that applied to women. Marriage would be considered for girls from around the age of 14 and we know that she was betrothed to Joseph – who was quite a bit older than Mary. Because good Jewish girls would be obedient and submissive to their parents, Mary would have accepted this situation although it is likely that she had very little choice in the matter.

How did the archangel address Mary? Not by her name but, in this translation, as the “favoured one”, which, along with the sudden appearance of the heavenly being caused her to question, to wonder what exactly was going on. The shock probably wasn’t helped by the further revelation that she was God’s favoured person to help fulfil his promises – indeed the promise given to David in our first reading. But it came with the statement/promise “the Lord is with you” which is what Nathan had said to David.

Although Mary questioned how it would come about, she didn’t question the ability of God to bring his purposes to fruition. The archangel explained about Mary’s cousin Elizabeth confirming that nothing is impossible with God. So she accepted the role God had for her in quiet obedience despite knowing that this could spell trouble for her, her family and her forthcoming marriage to Joseph. She was, as we know, accepting what would turn out to be a difficult role, with some very dark times ahead. Mary then entrusted herself and her future to God completely and willingly with the obedience of faith to the one she had been brought up to know as the God who loves his creation and his people.

Both David and Mary saw dark and difficult times but they clung to the promises of God. They followed him obediently.

I wonder whether we, despite or even in the face the difficult times many have experienced this year as the pandemic has raged, are still able to put our trust in the God who loves us. Are we still walking closely with God, watching and waiting, looking out for what God may be calling us to do and when we see things that, maybe only we can do, are we willing to give it a go in quiet obedience? Mary is a model of faith for each one of us, can we say with her “Here I am, the servant of the Lord; let it be with me according to your word.”

HYMN: Tell Out My Soul Timothy Dudley Smith (b.1926)

Tell out, my soul, the greatness of the Lord!
Unnumbered blessings give my spirit voice;
Tender to me the promise of his word;
In God my Saviour shall my heart rejoice

Tell out, my soul, the greatness of his Name!
Make known his might, the deeds his arm has done;
His mercy sure, from age to age to same;
His holy Name--the Lord, the Mighty One

News and Prayer Update for 20th December

Tell out, my soul, the greatness of his might!
Powers and dominions lay their glory by Proud hearts and stubborn wills are put to flight
The hungry fed, the humble lifted high

Tell out, my soul, the glories of his word!
Firm is his promise, and his mercy sure,
Tell out, my soul, the greatness of the Lord
to children's children and for evermore.

PRAYER in the coming week – 4th week of Advent:

Advent candle prayers:

First Candle – The Candle of Hope

We speak of hope – because God keeps his promises to us.

We focus on the Patriarchs, Abraham, the Old Testament Ancestors of Jesus

God of Abraham and Sarah,
and all the patriarchs of old,
you are our Father too.

Your love is revealed to us in Jesus Christ,
Son of God and Son of David.

Help us in preparing to celebrate his birth to make our hearts ready for your Holy Spirit to make his home among us.

We ask this through Jesus Christ,
the light who is coming into the world.

Amen.

Second Candle – The Candle of Peace

We work for peace – because Jesus is the 'Prince of Peace' and he calls his children to work for peace in his name.

We focus on the prophets who foretold the birth of Jesus

God our Father,
you spoke to the prophets of old
of a Saviour who would bring peace.

You helped them to spread the joyful message of his coming kingdom.

Help us, as we prepare to celebrate his birth, to share with those around us
the good news of your power and love.

We ask this through Jesus Christ,
the light who is coming into the world.

Amen.

News and Prayer Update for 20th December

Third Candle - The Candle of Love

We show love - because Jesus gave everything for us and led us to know the forgiveness of God.

We focus on John the Baptist

God our Father,
you gave to Zechariah and Elizabeth in their old age
a son called John.
He grew up strong in spirit,
prepared the people for the coming of the Lord,
and baptized them in the Jordan to wash away their sins.
Help us, who have been baptized into Christ,
to be ready to welcome him into our hearts,
and to grow strong in faith by the power of the Spirit.
We ask this through Jesus Christ,
the light who is coming into the world.

Amen.

Fourth Candle - The Candle of Joy (Pink candle)

We share joy - because the Holy Spirit fills our hearts and minds with the presence of the God

We focus on Mary the Mother of Jesus

God our Father,
the angel Gabriel told the Virgin Mary that she was to be the mother of your Son.
Though Mary was afraid,
she responded to your call with joy.
Help us, whom you call to serve you,
to share like her in your great work
of bringing to our world your love and healing.
We ask this through Jesus Christ,
the light who is coming into the world.

Amen.

The Last Candle - The Birth of Christ (Christmas Day)

We focus on Jesus

God our Father,
today the Saviour is born
and those who live in darkness are seeing a great light.
Help us, who greet the birth of Christ with joy, to live in the light of your Son
and to share the good news of your love.
We ask this through Jesus Christ,
the light who has come into the world.

Amen.

News and Prayer Update for 20th December

❖ Join the Prayer Chain:

Our Reader, Chris Stanisstreet has organised a Prayer Chain which is done by email and telephone. The idea behind this, is that when a specific prayer request is made, it is passed on by group e-mail to the people on the list who then pray for the particular situation.

If you would like to receive prayer requests or would like to make a prayer request, please let Chris Stanisstreet know:

Tel: 01925 755559; Mob 07918 981 723; stanbess2003@yahoo.co.uk

❖ Thank you to all who supported the St Mary's Christmas Produce Sale

People have been incredibly generous with their support and donations and as a result the Christmas Produce Sale has raised over £1100! Thank you to everyone who organised, baked, delivered, printed, supported, and bought; you have all helped towards this amazing total!

❖ The Hideaway – Hope Centre in Partington

Partington is just a few miles away – about 15 minutes in the car. Yet the lives of many people there are very different than the lives of most of us here in High Legh and Little Bollington. Approximately 1/3 of the residents live below the poverty line and it is in the lowest 5% of deprived areas in the UK.

Churches Together in Lymm and District have supported The Hideaway – Hope Centre in Partington during the Covid 19 crisis. They are running a foodbank, providing hot meals daily, hosting a play-centre, giving family advice and counselling. An amazing beacon of hope in that deprived area.

They plan to open a shop selling surplus food and uniform at affordable prices but unfortunately one of the businesses that had offered money is not able to give and they are £3000 short and desperately need to begin this project by December.

Can you support them? Any amount will help and if possible, within the next two weeks.

Please use the Lymm Baptist Church giving website:
lyymbaptistchurch.com/giving

Any money you give will go directly to the Hope Centre.

If you cannot use online giving but would like to support them please contact Rev'd Trish for help.

Thank you

We are all in need of hope in these difficult times. Please will you give a little hope to our neighbours.

Psalm: Psalm 143

- 1 Hear my prayer, O Lord, and in your faithfulness give ear to my supplications; ♦ answer me in your righteousness.
- 2 Enter not into judgement with your servant, ♦
for in your sight shall no one living be justified.
- 3 For the enemy has pursued me, crushing my life to the ground, ♦ making me sit in darkness like those long dead.
- 4 My spirit faints within me; ♦
my heart within me is desolate.
- 5 I remember the time past; I muse upon all your deeds; ♦
I consider the works of your hands.
- 6 I stretch out my hands to you; ♦
my soul gasps for you like a thirsty land.
- 7 O Lord, make haste to answer me; my spirit fails me; ♦ hide not your face from me lest I be like those who go down to the Pit.
- 8 Let me hear of your loving-kindness in the morning, for in you I put my trust; ♦ show me the way I should walk in, for I lift up my soul to you.
- 9 Deliver me, O Lord, from my enemies, ♦
for I flee to you for refuge.
- 10 Teach me to do what pleases you, for you are my God; ♦
