HYMN: Guide Me O Thou Great Redeemer (William Williams 1717 – 1791; Music: John Hughes 1872 – 1932)

Guide me, O thou great Redeemer pilgrim though this barren land;
I am weak, but thou art mighty;
hold me with thy powerful hand;
Bread of heaven, Bread of heaven,
feed me till I want no more, want no more,
feed me till I want no more.

Open now the crystal fountain, whence the healing stream doth flow;
let the fire and cloudy pillar lead me all my journey through;
strong deliverer, strong deliverer.
be thou still my strength and shield,
be thou still my strength and shield.

When I tread the verge of Jordan, bid my anxious fears subside;
death of death, and hell's destruction,
land me safe on Canaan's side;
songs of praises, songs of praises,
I will ever give to thee,
I will ever give to thee.

First Reading: Philippians 1: 21-end

<sup>21</sup> For to me, living is Christ and dying is gain.

<sup>22</sup> If I am to live in the flesh, that means fruitful labour for me; and I do not know which I prefer.

<sup>23</sup> I am hard pressed between the two: my desire is to depart and be with Christ, for that is far better;

<sup>24</sup> but to remain in the flesh is more necessary for you.

<sup>25</sup> Since I am convinced of this, I know that I will remain and continue with all of you for your progress and joy in faith, <sup>26</sup> so that I may share abundantly in your boasting in Christ Jesus when I come to you again.

<sup>27</sup> Only, live your life in a manner worthy of the gospel of Christ, so that, whether I come and see you or am absent and hear about you, I will know that you are standing firm in one spirit, striving side by side with one mind for the faith of the gospel,

<sup>28</sup> and are in no way intimidated by your opponents. For them this is evidence of their destruction, but of your salvation. And this is God's doing.

<sup>29</sup> For he has graciously granted you the privilege not only of believing in Christ, but of suffering for him as well

<sup>30</sup> since you are having the same struggle that you saw I had and now hear that I still have.

Gospel Reading: Matthew 20: 1 – 16

<sup>3</sup> When he went out about nine o'clock, he saw others standing idle in the market-place;

<sup>4</sup> and he said to them, "You also go into the vineyard, and I will pay you whatever is right." So they went.

<sup>5</sup> When he went out again about noon and about three o'clock, he did the same.

<sup>6</sup> And about five o'clock he went out and found others standing around; and he said to them, "Why are you standing here idle all day?"

<sup>7</sup> They said to him, "Because no one has hired us." He said to them, "You also go into the vineyard."

<sup>8</sup> When evening came, the owner of the vineyard said to his manager, "Call the labourers and give them their pay, beginning with the last and then going to the first."

<sup>9</sup> When those hired about five o'clock came, each of them received the usual daily wage.

News and Prayer Update for 20th September

<sup>10</sup> Now when the first came, they thought they would receive more; but each of them also received the usual daily wage.

<sup>12</sup> saying, "These last worked only one hour, and you have made them equal to us who have borne the burden of the day and the scorching heat."

<sup>13</sup> But he replied to one of them, "Friend, I am doing you no wrong; did you not agree with me for the usual daily wage?"

<sup>14</sup> Take what belongs to you and go; I choose to give to this last the same as I give to you.

<sup>15</sup> Am I not allowed to do what I choose with what belongs to me? Or are you envious because I am generous?"

<sup>16</sup> So the last will be first, and the first will be last.'

REFLECTION ON THE READINGS Revd Trish Cope

All of you watching will have had experience of being an employee or as an employer taking on and paying staff.

Surely, we all know it makes sense to get paid for the amount of work that you do. There will be those of you who, like me, have been employees and we expect to get paid pro-rata for what we do. When I dropped from full-time work (5 days a week) to part-time 3 days a week – I didn't expect to get paid the same amount – and I didn't – my pay reduced pro-rata. By the same token, when I increased from part-time to full-time I expected to be paid more and I was! Would I have worked for 5 days if I only got paid the same as I was paid for 3 days – Mmmmmm? Perhaps not!

There will be those of you listening who are employers. What do you expect to pay – do you pay those who work longer more and vice versa? I'm sure that you do. I'm sure that you might well think – if I pay part-time staff the same as full time staff I won't be able to get anyone to work full time!

Surely this vineyard owner is a very strange employer.

But remember what we have just heard is not an example of agricultural management or part of an employer's handbook for administration and economics. That is not what Jesus is providing. It is a parable.

You might well wonder why the vineyard owner behaved as he did – surely this wasn't good management and certainly not a good incentive scheme for workers.

But this is not a factual account of a real event. This is a parable. Yes – the vineyard owner's actions are odd – by human standards – BUT this vineyard owner represents God and God is odd – his ways are not our ways. As the prophet Isaiah said:

News and Prayer Update for 20th September

“For my thoughts are not your thoughts, nor are your ways my ways, says the Lord.
For as the heavens are higher than the earth,
so are my ways higher than your ways and my thoughts than your thoughts.” (Isaiah 55: 8 – 9)

Let's just remember who Jesus is speaking to.

This parable is addressed to the close company of 12 disciples and would have stayed in the minds of the disciples because it seems so odd. Surely no employer in his right mind would behave like this – paying the same wage whatever the amount of work done, no matter how deserving the workers were. Such an unexpected end would ensure the parable made a memorable impact.

So why does Jesus tell them this parable. The disciples have just asked Jesus what their rewards will be. We have given up a lot to follow you they say – good steady work as fishermen; family businesses; a well remunerated if somewhat dodgy job as a tax-collector.

So Peter asks Jesus, ‘Look, we have left everything and followed you. What then will we have?’

Jesus sees that they need to learn a lesson; they need to recognise that EVERYONE is equally precious to God; that there's no special reward for hard work or long-service.

No-one is favoured more because of what they do or for how long they do it. The chance to serve God and each other is – like all our blessings – a precious gift.

We all need to learn that God's grace and goodness doesn't work in human ways – God gives despite of what we do / we cannot earn it – we can only be thankful for God's gracious generosity. God's blessing to us isn't diminished because he gives to others – whom we may sometimes see as less-deserving! If we see God's gifts to us as earned by us – we need to think again. God's gifts are not offered according to our good service but simply given to us in love. God will never be in our debt because of how much we have served him nor will he come under our direction – acting according to human terms and conditions.

God's ways are not our ways, nor his thoughts our thoughts.

This parable tells us that we need to think less about our rights and entitlement and more about generosity, mercy and goodness.

May we learn the art of cheerful giving – of our service and ourselves – for the sake of your Kingdom.

Teach us, good Lord,
to serve you as you deserve,
to give and not to count the cost,
to fight and not to heed the wounds,
to toil and not to seek for rest,

News and Prayer Update for 20th September

to labour and not to ask for any reward, save that of knowing that we do your will.
Amen.
(St Ignatius Loyola)

Collect for 15th Sunday after Trinity:

God, who in generous mercy sent the Holy Spirit upon your Church in the burning fire of your love:
grant that your people may be fervent in the fellowship of the gospel that, always abiding in you, they may be found steadfast in faith and active in service;
through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you,
in the unity of the Holy Spirit,
one God, now and for ever.

HYMN: O Jesus, I Have Promised (John Ernest Bode 1816 – 1874; Music James William Elliott 1833 – 1915)

O Jesus I have promised to serve thee to the end;
be thou for ever near me,
my Master and my friend:
I shall not fear the battle
if thou art by my side, nor wander from the pathway
if thou wilt be my guide.

O let me feel thee near me:
the world is ever near;
I see the sights that dazzle,
the tempting sounds I hear;
my foes are ever near me, around me and within;
but Jesus, draw thou nearer,
and shield my soul from sin.

O let me hear thee speaking in accents clear and still, above the storms of passion,
the murmurs of self-will;
O speak and reassure me,
to hasten or control;
O speak and make me listen,
thou guardian of my soul.

News and Prayer Update for 20th September

O Jesus, thou hast promised, to all who follow thee,
that where thou art in glory there shall thy servant be;
and, Jesus, I have promised
to serve thee to the end:
O give me grace to follow,
my Master and my friend.

O let me see thy foot-marks,
and in them plant mine own;
my hope to follow duly is in thy strength alone:
O guide me, call me, draw me,
uphold me to the end;
and then heav'n receive me,
my Saviour and my friend.

PRAYER in the coming week:

This week, we continue the theme of Creationtide and use the words of a well-known song to praise God for his Creation. Whatever other difficulties we meet each day, we can see God's greatness in everything around us and he deserves our praise.

Morning has broken
Like the first morning,
Blackbird has spoken
Like the first bird.
Praise for the singing!
Praise for the morning!
Praise for them, springing Fresh from the Word!

Sweet the rain's new fall
Sunlit from Heaven,
Like the first dewfall
On the first grass.
Praise for the sweetness
Of the wet garden,
Sprung in completeness
Where his feet pass.

Mine is the sunlight,
Mine is the morning,
Born of the one light
Eden saw play.
Praise with elation,
Praise every morning,
God's re-creation
Of the new day!
